Obituary: Entrepreneur Curt Stone Advanced Quality of Life Technologies

Curt Stone, a Carnegie Mellon University executive-in-residence and the founder and former director of the QoLT Foundry, died suddenly Thursday evening. A memorial service was on Monday morning at Fox Chapel Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Stone, 50, was a highly inventive, seasoned medical device industry entrepreneur with 25 years experience in finance, product development, business development, strategic relationships, marketing and sales. At the QoLT Foundry, part of the Quality of Life Technology Center, he identified, evaluated and advanced technology for near-term commercial opportunities.

Prior to joining CMU, he founded a company that
